

Welder Fitter

Davison Iron is currently seeking a highly skilled, reliable and motivated Structural Fitter and Fabricator with several years of experience to join our shop team. In this role, you will be responsible for Assembling, Fabricating, and Welding structural components for successful field installations while utilizing industry standards.

Fitter Duties and Responsibilities

- Interpret detailed shop drawings to accurately assemble structural components.
- Assemble and fit structural components according to specifications.
- Use hand and power tools to cut, shape, and fit materials.
- Basic math skills for measurements and calculations related to fabrication tasks.
- Strong attention to detail and precision to ensure proper alignment and fit.
- Collaborate with other team members to complete projects on time.
- Maintain a clean and organized work environment by properly handling hand tools, power tools, and fabrication machinery.
- Keep accurate records of work performed and materials used.
- Follow all safety regulations and procedures.
- Report any issues or discrepancies to the supervisor.

Qualifications, Material, Tools, Equipment, Work Aids

Proven experience as a Structural Fitter or similar role. Must be proficient in techniques such as SMAW Stick welding. Understanding and reading welding symbols, blueprints, schematics, and detailed drawings necessary. Familiarity with manufacturing processes related to construction or industrial fabrication environments. Frequent to continuous lifting of welding equipment. Standing, walking, manual dexterity, pushing, pulling, kneeling, bending Must be able to maintain general safety awareness and avoid hazards commonly present in employee's work area. Operational knowledge of cranes and torch. Personal protective equipment required.